

MINING

2022 Public Opinion Survey Results

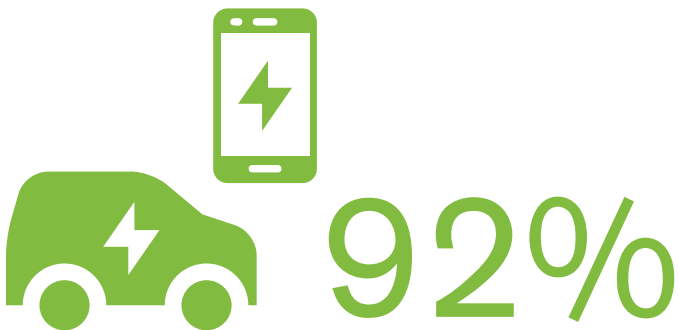

Public awareness, perceptions and support

JOB CREATION/ GOOD, QUALITY JOBS

The #1 reason respondents support the mining industry.

92% of respondents are supportive of increased production of critical minerals from Saskatchewan that provide food and clean energy security.

Very high level of public support

92%

92% of respondents support the mining industry in Saskatchewan

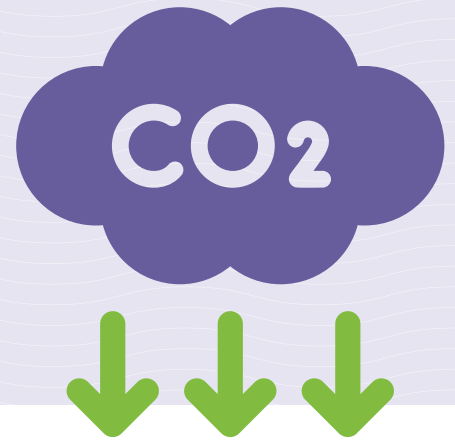

93%

Nearly all (93%) of respondents believe the mining industry is important to Saskatchewan

91%

91% of respondents are confident that mining companies will continue to play an important role in Saskatchewan

Majority of respondents think the province's mining industry is supportive of goals to reduce greenhouse gases.

87%
87%

87% of respondents are confident that Saskatchewan's mining industry can continue to be competitive with mining industries in other countries.

87% of respondents think mining companies create local jobs by supporting local companies that supply mines with various products and services.

Mining companies:

- › provide good quality jobs
- › generate economic opportunity in the province
- › ensure the safety of those who work in mining
- › support Saskatchewan communities
- › are well regulated in Saskatchewan
- › provide opportunity for Indigenous people
- › offer a diverse and inclusive environment

80%

80% of respondents agree that the mining industry in Saskatchewan is inclusive of Indigenous, new citizens and all genders in its hiring policies.

SMA

Saskatchewan Mining Association

saskmining.ca

@SaskMiningAssoc

